

Patient Id: 3952	Study Date: 24/06/2026
Patient Name: RAVINDER KUMAR	Referring Doctor:
Age / Sex: 34/Male	Investigation: C.T. OF NECK

C.T. OF NECK

Clinical History:

Technique:

Axial CT sections from skull base to thoracic inlet with IV contrast; coronal and sagittal reconstructions.

Study reveals:

ABDOMEN:

Liver:normal in size, shape. no evidence of abnormal mass lesion noted.

Gallbladder and biliary system:normal.

Spleen:normal.

Pancreas:normal.

Bilateral mild extrarenal pelvis noted. rest bilateral kidneys and adrenals:normal.

Bowel loops:prominent large bowel loops showing fecal loading noted.

Lymph nodes: few subcentimetric mesentric lymph nodes noted, largest of size approx. 7.5mm in SAD.

no evidence of free fluid noted.

appendix is not clearly visualised due to excessive bowel gases.

urinary bladder: overdistended with no evidence of soft tissue growth noted.

IMPRESSION:

no significant abnormality noted.

Clinical Advice:

clinical correlation for further evaluation.

Signature

Dr. Dr. Ankur Kumar
DMC No: 1234
MD
Consultant Radiologist

